

Calling all Coll folk!

Housing on Coll: Past, Present and Future

The James Hutton Institute are pleased to invite you to a discussion about housing on Coll. By discussing how Coll has changed over the years, we will work together to imagine - and plan for - what the island could look like in years to come.

Free food and drink will be provided!

Who's invited?

Everyone is welcome! All voices matter to help shape Coll's story.

When?

17th Feb 3-8pm: Drop-in event to offer thoughts on the timeline of Coll, exploring different housing scenarios.

18th Feb 6-8:30pm: Workshop to explore the factors needed to reach an ideal future for the island of Coll. Light supper provided. Feel free to come to both days or either day.

Where: An Cridhe

Bring your ideas and memories of Coll housing through the years.

Scan here for more information
on the workshop or visit
[https://ruralfutures.hutton.ac.uk
/living-labs](https://ruralfutures.hutton.ac.uk/living-labs)

